3. This Court has jurisdiction over this adversary proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334.

4. This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). To the extent Article III of the United States Constitution does not permit any cause of action asserted herein to be treated as “core,” Plaintiff consents to the Court entering final orders or judgment pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(c)(2).

5. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1409.

8. On June 26, 2017 (hereinafter “Petition Date”), Debtor filed a voluntary Chapter 7 petition (hereinafter “Petition”).

9. The Trustee and his professionals have investigated the Debtor’s financial affairs.

10. Plaintiff’s investigation to date has revealed payments made to Aylor by Debtor totaling $25,000.00 on or within two years before the Petition Date (the “Transfers”).

11. Plaintiff believes there may have been additional transactions between Debtor and Defendant, for which documentation has not yet been received, and Plaintiff reserves the right to avoid and recover any such additional transactions.

FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

12. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in the previous paragraphs as if fully restated herein.

13. The Transfers, which were to or for the benefit of Defendant, occurred on or within two years before the Petition Date.

14. Upon information and belief, the Transfers were made with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors of Debtor.

15. Upon information and belief, such actual intent is evidenced by, among other things, the diversion of valuable assets away from existing creditors.

16. Plaintiff believes there may have been additional transactions between Debtor and Defendant for which documentation has not yet been received, and Plaintiff reserves the right to avoid and recover any such additional transactions.

24. Because of the foregoing, the Transfers may be avoided under Section 548(a)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Transfers may be recovered from Defendant as the initial transferee or individual for whose benefit the Transfers were made under Section 550 of the Bankruptcy Code.

25. Plaintiff believes there may have been additional transactions between Debtor and Defendant for which documentation has not yet been received, and Plaintiff reserves the right to avoid and recover any such additional transactions.
